75th INDEPENDENCE DAY SPEECH

Good morning to everyone,

August 15 is an unforgettable day in the history of India. Independence Day of the Indian subcontinent after a long struggle. There are only three national festivals in India and they are celebrated all over the country together. One is Independence Day (August 15), the other two are Republic Day (January 26) and Gandhi Jayanti (October 2). After independence, India became the largest democracy in the world. We fought hard for independence from the British.

The British ruled us for almost two centuries. The citizen of the country suffered greatly from these oppressors. The British authorities treat us like slaves until we fight them.

We fought for our freedom but worked tirelessly and selflessly under the guidance of our leaders Jawaharlal Nehru, Subhash Chandra Bose, Mahatma Gandhi, Chandra Sehgar Azad and Bhagat Singh. Some of these leaders choose the path of violence, some choose non-violence. But their ultimate goal was to drive the British out of the country. On 15 August 1947, the long-awaited dream came true.

We celebrate Independence Day to commemorate this moment and experience a sense of freedom and independence. Another reason is to remember the sacrifices and lives we lost in this struggle.

The celebration awakens the patriotism within us. With celebration, the younger generation is familiar with the struggles of the people who lived during that time.

Although it is a national holiday, the people of the country celebrate it with great enthusiasm. Schools, offices, associations and colleges celebrate this day by organizing various small and large events.

Every year the Prime Minister of India hoists the national flag at the Red Fort. Ahead of the event, 21 shootings took place. This is the begging of the main event. The event is followed by a military parade.

Schools and colleges organize cultural events, fancy dress competitions, speeches, debates and quizzes.

Every Indian has a different perspective on Indian independence. For some, it is reminiscent of a long struggle, while at the same time symbolizing the country's pride and honor for young people. After all, we can see a sense of patriotism across the country.

Indians across the country celebrate Independence Day with a sense of nationalism and patriotism. On this day every citizen is proud of the festive spirit and the diversity and unity of the people. It is not only a celebration of independence, but also the unity of the country's diversity.

I was nominated as the Principal of this College on 02.11.2020. Today is 287 days since I took office. The time I took office was a challenging period. When I became the Principal of our college, the pandemic caused by COVID-19 was a challenge. Even then, in the early days, I acted responsibly.
